Reading My Degree Evaluation

Reading Your Degree Evaluation
The Degree Evaluation does not replace your advisor. It is a tool that you and your advisor can use to track your academic progress, leaving you with more time to discuss what's really important whether that be advising, studying, or teaching.

After you have run a Degree Evaluation, three options display to view the results.

General Requirements: Shows which courses were used to satisfy an area of your program requirements, but does not list the missing requirements.

Detail Requirements: Gives you the complete picture of what courses you need to take and which courses have been used to satisfy program requirements.

Program Evaluation Section

This section lists general information for the degree evaluation.

Program indicates the degree and major.

Catalog Term indicates the catalog used to check the degree requirements.

Expected Graduation Date may not be a true representation of when you expect to graduate.

Evaluation Term term the degree evaluation was generated.

Results as of date the degree evaluation was generated.

General Program Requirements Section

This section lists overall degree requirements for the indicated program.

Total Required indicates the overall number of credit hours required for the degree.

Required Institutional indicates the number of WSU credit hours required for the degree.

Transfer indicates the total number of transfer hours used.

In Progress indicates the number of hours in progress or registered for a future term.

Unused indicates the number of credit hours not used for this evaluation.

Met column (Yes or No) indicates whether the requirement has been fulfilled.

Credits column list the required credit hours and actual credit hours used. The Used column includes in progress courses if the degree evaluation was generated with In Progress courses.

Group and Area Requirements Sections

The Degree Evaluation will automatically use the latest courses (most recently taken) to fulfill requirements. In some cases, courses that you are currently taking may be used to fulfill a requirement. Transfer courses are included in the Degree Evaluation. Courses that do not have a WSU equivalent are given the course number 2000, 4000 or 6000.

Each degree evaluation will contain multiple Groups and Areas. On the Detail Requirements display option, these groups and areas display the requirement as well as the courses take to satisfy the requirement.

Group or Area: indicates the name of the group/area, required overall credit hours or courses, and if the requirement is Met or Not Met.

Description provides additional information about the area.

Group/Area requirement headers (shaded in grey in the example above):

Met – indicates whether the requirement is met (Yes) or not met (No).

Condition is a logic statement that lists whether the requirement is an “and” or an “or”.

Rule indicates that the requirement is a choice of one or more courses.

Subject lists the subject code and/or course number for the requirement.

Low lists the lowest course number accepted.

High lists the highest course number accepted if there is a range.

Required Credits lists number of credits required.

Required Courses lists number of courses required.

Term indicates the term the course was taken to satisfy a requirement.

Subject lists the subject for the course that satisfied a requirement.

Course lists the course number for the course that satisfied a requirement.

Title lists the title of the course that satisfied a requirement.

Note: Course numbers of 2000, 4000 or 6000 indicate the course is a transfer course. The subject, course number, and title from the transfer college display in the title column for that course.

Attribute lists the attribute of the course that satisfied a requirement.

Credits lists the credits for the course that satisfied a requirement.

Grade lists the course grade. The letter “T” in the grade column indicates the course was transfer work.

Source indicates where the course work was taken.

T – Transfer Course
H – Academic History (WSU course)
R – Registration (in progress or registered for a future term)
